

GRE Vocabulary Notes: Group 26

Group 26 Vocabulary

1. Apprehension

Meaning: Anxiety or fear about the future; also, understanding.

Tip to remember: Apprehension sounds like “a tension.” If you feel tension about something coming, you feel apprehension.

Sentence: He felt apprehension before the GRE exam.

2. Ardent

Meaning: Very enthusiastic, passionate, or devoted.

Tip to remember: Ardent sounds like “a hard intent.” An ardent person has strong intention and passion.

Sentence: She is an ardent supporter of renewable energy.

3. Axiomatic

Meaning: Obviously true; accepted without needing proof.

Tip to remember: An axiom is a basic truth in mathematics. Axiomatic means self-evident.

Sentence: It is axiomatic that hard work improves performance.

4. Cease

Meaning: To stop or come to an end.

Tip to remember: Cease sounds like “seize,” but instead of grabbing, it means stopping.

Sentence: The rain ceased after two hours.

5. Conducive

Meaning: Helpful or favorable for achieving something.

Tip to remember: Conducive sounds like “conductive.” A conducive wire helps current flow; a conducive environment helps success flow.

Sentence: A quiet room is conducive to focused study.

6. Corporeal

Meaning: Related to the body; physical rather than spiritual.

Tip to remember: Corporeal sounds like “corpse,” which is a physical body.

Sentence: The monk tried to ignore corporeal comforts.

7. Doctrinaire
Meaning: Rigidly following a doctrine or theory without considering practical situations.
Tip to remember: Doctrinaire comes from doctrine. A doctrinaire person follows doctrine too strictly.
Sentence: His doctrinaire approach ignored real-world problems.
8. Eclectic
Meaning: Choosing ideas, styles, or methods from many different sources.
Tip to remember: Think of collecting the best things from everywhere. Eclectic means mixed from many sources.
Sentence: Her music taste is eclectic, ranging from classical to rock.
9. Equanimity
Meaning: Mental calmness and emotional balance, especially during difficulty.
Tip to remember: “Equa” means equal or balanced. Equanimity means a balanced mind.
Sentence: She handled the criticism with equanimity.
10. Exorbitant
Meaning: Excessively high, especially in price or amount.
Tip to remember: Exorbitant sounds like “extra orbit.” The price goes far outside the normal orbit.
Sentence: The hotel charged an exorbitant fee during the festival.
11. Fickle
Meaning: Changing often, especially in loyalty, interest, or opinion.
Tip to remember: Think of a friend who changes favorite teams every week. That person is fickle.
Sentence: The fickle audience quickly lost interest.
12. Figurative
Meaning: Not literal; using figures of speech or symbolic meaning.
Tip to remember: Figurative language creates a figure or image in your mind, not a literal fact.
Sentence: The phrase “time is money” is figurative.
13. Flustered
Meaning: Nervous, confused, or upset.
Tip to remember: Flustered sounds like “flushed and confused.” A flustered person loses calm.
Sentence: He became flustered when the interviewer asked a difficult question.
14. Gullible
Meaning: Easily tricked or fooled.
Tip to remember: Think of someone who believes every online ad. That person is gullible.
Sentence: The gullible customer believed the fake offer.

15. Idiosyncratic
Meaning: Unusual and unique to a particular person.
Tip to remember: Think of someone's personal odd habit. That habit is idiosyncratic.
Sentence: The professor had an idiosyncratic teaching style.
16. Incidental
Meaning: Minor, secondary, or happening by chance.
Tip to remember: Incidental sounds like "incident." It is something that happens along the way, not the main point.
Sentence: The travel cost was incidental compared to the tuition fee.
17. Ingrained
Meaning: Deeply fixed and difficult to change.
Tip to remember: Think of dirt stuck deep in the grain of wood. Ingrained habits are deeply stuck.
Sentence: His habit of waking early was deeply ingrained.
18. Insolent
Meaning: Rude and disrespectful.
Tip to remember: Insolent sounds like "insult." An insolent person speaks insultingly.
Sentence: The teacher warned the student about his insolent tone.
19. Lampoon
Meaning: To publicly mock or ridicule someone, often through satire.
Tip to remember: Think of a cartoon making fun of a politician. That cartoon lampoons the politician.
Sentence: The newspaper lampooned the minister's poor speech.
20. Lavish
Meaning: Very rich, generous, or excessive.
Tip to remember: Think of a lavish wedding with too much decoration and spending.
Sentence: The hotel offered lavish meals to its guests.
21. Lugubrious
Meaning: Extremely sad, gloomy, or mournful.
Tip to remember: Lugubrious sounds heavy and gloomy, like someone crying slowly at a funeral.
Sentence: His lugubrious expression worried his friends.
22. Macabre
Meaning: Disturbing because it is related to death or horror.
Tip to remember: Think of a dark horror scene with skulls and shadows. That is macabre.
Sentence: The movie had a macabre atmosphere.

23. Morose
Meaning: Gloomy, sad, and bad-tempered.
Tip to remember: Morose sounds like “more rose,” but imagine all roses dead and gloomy.
Sentence: He became morose after failing the exam.
24. Officious
Meaning: Too eager to give advice or help, especially when unwanted.
Tip to remember: Think of an office worker interfering in everyone’s work. That person is officious.
Sentence: The officious neighbor kept giving unwanted advice.
25. Ramification
Meaning: A consequence or result, especially one that is complex or unexpected.
Tip to remember: Think of tree branches spreading from one trunk. One decision can have many ramifications.
Sentence: The policy had serious economic ramifications.
26. Serene
Meaning: Calm, peaceful, and untroubled.
Tip to remember: Serene sounds like “scene” of a quiet lake. A peaceful scene is serene.
Sentence: The serene mountain view helped him relax.
27. Supplant
Meaning: To replace or take the place of something.
Tip to remember: Think of a new plant growing and pushing out the old one. It supplants the old plant.
Sentence: Digital payments may supplant cash in many cities.
28. Tacit
Meaning: Understood without being directly stated.
Tip to remember: Tacit sounds like “silent.” Tacit agreement is silent agreement.
Sentence: There was a tacit understanding that everyone would contribute.
29. Transcend
Meaning: To go beyond a limit or rise above something.
Tip to remember: Think of climbing beyond the highest boundary. To transcend is to go beyond.
Sentence: Great art can transcend cultural boundaries.
30. Treatise
Meaning: A serious written work that discusses a subject in detail.
Tip to remember: Think of a thesis-like treatment of a topic. A treatise treats a subject deeply.
Sentence: The scholar wrote a treatise on political philosophy.