

GRE Vocabulary Notes: Group 21

Group 21 Vocabulary

1. Abject

Meaning: Extremely bad, hopeless, or miserable.

Tip to remember: Abject sounds like “object thrown down.” Imagine someone thrown down into a helpless condition.

Sentence: Many families lived in abject poverty after the disaster.

2. Amicable

Meaning: Friendly and peaceful.

Tip to remember: Amicable sounds like “amiable,” which means friendly.

Sentence: The two friends reached an amicable agreement.

3. Animosity

Meaning: Strong dislike, hostility, or hatred.

Tip to remember: Animosity sounds like “enemy mood.” It means a hostile feeling toward someone.

Sentence: Years of competition created animosity between the two teams.

4. Aver

Meaning: To state or declare confidently.

Tip to remember: Aver sounds like “verify.” When you aver something, you state it as true.

Sentence: The scientist averred that the results were accurate.

5. Barrage

Meaning: A large number of things coming quickly; a heavy attack.

Tip to remember: Think of a barrage of questions fired like bullets.

Sentence: The speaker faced a barrage of questions after the presentation.

6. Cathartic

Meaning: Providing emotional release or relief.

Tip to remember: Think of crying after stress and feeling lighter. That emotional cleaning is cathartic.

Sentence: Writing in a journal can be cathartic.

7. Decipher

Meaning: To understand or decode something difficult to read or interpret.

Tip to remember: Think of decoding a secret message or unreadable handwriting.
Sentence: The students tried to decipher the professor's handwriting.

8. Delusion

Meaning: A false belief that is strongly held despite evidence.

Tip to remember: Delusion sounds like illusion. Both involve something false or unreal.

Sentence: He was under the delusion that success would come without effort.

9. Dispense

Meaning: To distribute or give out; to do without something.

Tip to remember: GRE trick: dispense can mean give out, as in medicine, or "dispense with," meaning remove the need for.

Sentence: The clinic dispensed free medicine to the patients.

10. Eloquent

Meaning: Fluent, clear, and powerful in speaking or writing.

Tip to remember: Eloquent sounds like "elegant speech." An eloquent speaker uses beautiful and effective words.

Sentence: Her eloquent speech inspired the audience.

11. Enthrall

Meaning: To captivate or hold someone's attention completely.

Tip to remember: Think of a movie so interesting that it holds you like a spell. It enthralls you.

Sentence: The lecturer enthralled the students with stories of scientific discovery.

12. Eradicate

Meaning: To completely destroy or remove something.

Tip to remember: Think of pulling a weed out by its root. Eradicate means remove completely.

Sentence: The campaign aimed to eradicate illiteracy.

13. Fledgling

Meaning: New, young, and inexperienced.

Tip to remember: A fledgling is a young bird just learning to fly. A fledgling company or student is also just beginning.

Sentence: The fledgling startup struggled in its first year.

14. Fortitude

Meaning: Courage and strength in facing pain, difficulty, or danger.

Tip to remember: Fortitude sounds like "fort." A fort stands strong against attack; fortitude is inner strength.

Sentence: She showed great fortitude during her illness.

15. Fortuitous

Meaning: Happening by chance, often luckily.

Tip to remember: Fortuitous sounds like fortune. A fortuitous event happens by lucky chance.

Sentence: Their fortuitous meeting led to a successful research partnership.

16. Goad

Meaning: To provoke or push someone into action.

Tip to remember: A goad is like a stick used to push animals forward. To goad someone is to push them mentally.

Sentence: His friends goaded him into joining the debate competition.

17. Imminent

Meaning: About to happen very soon.

Tip to remember: Imminent sounds like “immediate.” It means something is coming soon.

Sentence: The dark clouds showed that rain was imminent.

18. Incontrovertible

Meaning: Impossible to deny or argue against.

Tip to remember: Controvert means argue against. Incontrovertible means cannot be argued against.

Sentence: The video provided incontrovertible evidence of the accident.

19. Itinerant

Meaning: Traveling from place to place.

Tip to remember: Itinerant sounds like itinerary, a travel plan. An itinerant person keeps traveling.

Sentence: The itinerant worker moved from village to village for jobs.

20. Magnanimous

Meaning: Generous, forgiving, and noble-minded.

Tip to remember: “Magna” means great, and “animus” means spirit. Magnanimous means having a great spirit.

Sentence: She was magnanimous in victory and praised her opponent.

21. Meritorious

Meaning: Deserving praise, reward, or respect.

Tip to remember: Meritorious comes from merit. If something has merit, it is worthy.

Sentence: The student received an award for meritorious service.

22. Mutiny

Meaning: A rebellion against authority, especially by soldiers or sailors.

Tip to remember: Think of sailors refusing to obey their captain. That is mutiny.

Sentence: The crew planned a mutiny against the cruel captain.

23. Paradoxical

Meaning: Seeming contradictory but possibly true.

Tip to remember: A paradox is a statement that looks opposite to logic but may reveal truth.

Sentence: It is paradoxical that spending less time online can make you feel more connected.

24. Perseverance

Meaning: Continued effort despite difficulty or failure.

Tip to remember: Think of “persisting severely.” Perseverance means not giving up even when things are hard.

Sentence: Perseverance is essential for GRE preparation.

25. Render

Meaning: To make, cause to become, give, or provide.

Tip to remember: GRE trick: render often means “make,” as in “render useless” means make useless.

Sentence: The storm rendered the road unsafe.

26. Repertoire

Meaning: A collection of skills, works, or abilities someone can use.

Tip to remember: Think of a musician’s list of songs. That list is the musician’s repertoire.

Sentence: She added Python programming to her repertoire of skills.

27. Resilient

Meaning: Able to recover quickly from difficulty.

Tip to remember: Think of rubber that returns to its shape after being stretched. A resilient person bounces back.

Sentence: The resilient community rebuilt after the flood.

28. Resolute

Meaning: Firm, determined, and unwavering.

Tip to remember: Resolute comes from resolution. A resolute person sticks to a decision.

Sentence: He remained resolute in his goal to study abroad.

29. Supple

Meaning: Flexible and easily bent; adaptable.

Tip to remember: Supple sounds like “soft pull.” Something supple bends smoothly when pulled.

Sentence: Yoga helped make her body more supple.

30. Valor

Meaning: Great courage, especially in danger.

Tip to remember: Valor sounds like “warrior value.” A brave warrior shows valor.

Sentence: The soldier was honored for his valor in battle.